

Starting November 1, a title company may exclude minerals from coverage in a title policy. Certain endorsements may apply to a policy with such an exclusion, if requested by the property owner. Learn more about the rule change at the Texas Department of Insurance Web site.